System Concepts, Inc. Receives Technology
Product of the Year Award

April 11, 2007....Scottsdale, Arizona - System Concepts Inc. was recently awarded Technology Product of the Year for its FOOD-TRAK® Food and Beverage Management System. The award, presented by Boardroom Magazine at the 2007 Club Manager's Association Annual (CMAA) Conference in Anaheim recognizes vendors and educators for their impact, achievements and contributions to the private club industry.

Mary Ritter, System Concepts, Inc. (SCI) Chief Operating Officer said "We pride ourselves on working hand in hand with our club and resort industry clients, and we're truly honored to receive this distinction from the independent panel of industry experts. The combination of our implementation efforts and flexible software design has made it possible for many of the industry's top clubs to save significant amounts of time and money. It is gratifying these efforts have resulted in such a prestigious award."

Among SCI's clients more notable clients in the club industry are Desert Mountain, in Scottsdale, Cherokee Town and Country Club in Atlanta, Boca West in Boca Raton, Ocean Reef Club in Key Largo, Waialae Country Club in Honolulu, and River Oaks in Houston. SCI is also well-known for their work in the Indian Gaming, restaurant and resort industries.
